First-time Homebuyer Assistance Program (FHAP) Certification Classes

Do you have a client in need of down payment and closing cost assistance?

Attend a City of Lewisville Certification Class to learn more about the City's First-time Homebuyer Assistance Program (FHAP).

Applicants to the program are required to work with a realtor and loan officer that have completed a certification class within the last year. Realtors and loan officers in turn partner with the City to assist the applicant with the grant-approval process.
